THE MOORES OF MOOREVILLE, YORK TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Research by Martha Carr, Ypsilanti, Michigan

CALEB MOORE

Caleb (Washington, William, John, Samuel) was born 14 December 1803 in Ontario County, New York, the second child of Washington Moore and Susanna Rice and brother of Loren Moore, above. Caleb married first 8 May 1827 Ann Burnett, born 2 May 1803 and died 14 January or February 1836. They moved to York Township in 1834. However, Ann is buried in the Rice (Orleans Pioneer) Cemetery in Ontario County, New York. Caleb married second Harriet Wright, born in New York 7 February 1808, on 22 August 1836. Harriet died 22 April 1841. Caleb's third wife was Alvina Shepherd, daughter of Joseph Shepherd and Asenath Bailey of New York, whom he married on 21 October 1841. She died 7 December 1892. Caleb served as York Township Supervisor in 1849, 1851-52, and 1854-56. He belonged to the Mooreville Baptist Church. At the time of his death due to lung inflammation on 12 December 1874 at the age of almost 71, Caleb was still living on his farm spanning sections 21 and 28 in York Township. He is buried in Mooreville Cemetery. Caleb's children were:

With wife Harriet Wright:

1. Harriet (in 1851-52 a student at the Lodi Plains Academy) married E.D. King and resided at Phelps, Ontario County, New York, in 1874 when her father died.

With wife Alvina Shepherd:

2. Maria, born December 1842, married Benjamin Franklin Gooding, born 1839, the son of Othniel and Abbey A. Gooding. He was a member of Company A, 4th Michigan Cavalry in the Civil War and was wounded in action at Kenesaw Mountain, Georgia, on 20 June 1864. For many years Maria and Frank resided on a farm in the southeast corner of Section 9, York Township (northwest corner of Judd and Warner Roads), but moved to 420 S. Fifth Avenue in Ann Arbor in the mid to late 1890s. This house was next door to the home of Maria's cousins, Philena Moore and Carrie Stone. Maria died 29 June 1918 and is buried in Forest Hill Cemetery in Ann Arbor. Her children were Clifford M., died 25 October 1877, aged 11 years, 20 days, Ralph Othniel, born February 1881 resided in Norwood, Ohio, in 1918, and Cecil died 4 January 1904 at the age of 20 years, 7 months and 14 days.

3. Erminia, born in 1844, married first in 1866 Morgan Thayer of Redford, Wayne County, Michigan, and second in 1869 Truman Carpenter. They resided at first in Mooreville where Truman sold dry goods. However, in September 1877 they sold their property to pay creditors. This may have prompted the family's move out of Washtenaw County. Chapman (1881) says they lived in Illinois. When her mother's probate papers were filed in 1892, Erminia was living in Oskaloosa, Iowa.

4. Washington Irving, born 12 October 1848, married first 20 September 1869 Effie V. Hinckley, born 17 September or December 1849 in York, died 8 or 18 February 1892, daughter of Porter and Sarah Olds Hinckley. Their children were Sarah G. (9 February 1874-13 December 1891), Bertha E. (19 August 1875-5 April 1902), Porter G. (3 June 1878-17 March 1898), and Alvina who married Evan Webb. W. Irving (as his name was usually printed) married second Mary Kanouse 27 July 1893. For many years he was a farmer in York Township. He died 21 July 1905 at University Hospital in Ann Arbor from hemorrhaging one day after an operation. He is buried in block 51, Highland Cemetery, Ypsilanti, Michigan. The only inheritance W. Irving received from his father was his father's church pew in the Mooreville Baptist Church.

ADDITONAL MOORE SETTLERS

Two brothers of Loren and Caleb, Morris and Charles Moore, bought land in Section 25, Saline Township, which is just across the township boundary line from the Mooreville area in York Township. Charles, his wife, Olive, and a daughter, Lottie, are buried in Mooreville Cemetery. There is no indication that Morris settled here.

PROOF OF SERVICE IN THE WAR OF 1812 FILED

Research by Barbara Snow, Ann Arbor, Michigan

The Michigan Argus. a weekly newspaper published in Ann Arbor, carries an informative report in the March 10, 1871 issue. A few letters at the beginning of each sentence were unreadable; these are characterized by [] in the following transcription:

> An unusual scene was witnessed at [] office of the County Clerk on Friday []. On that day ten veterans of the war []812 entered their appearance in a body, []ect their pension papers, on which []y draw $8 per month each. Their names [] ages were:
> | | | | |
> |---|---|---|---|
> | []vid Hayward, | 87 | James Loomis, | 78 |
> | []vin C?G? Collar, | 86 | Daniel Cross, | 78 |
> | []derick Beasom, | 83 | Israel Rogers, | 72 |
> | []les Collins, | 80 | T. Showerman, | 74 |
> | []n M. Smith, | 80 | Samuel Pratt, | 72 |
> The ages of these veterans aggregate 790, []average 79 years; and their appear[]e indicated a considerable increase of []aggregate and average. All, or near []11 reside at and in the vicinity of Ypsi[]i.
> []ince Friday five more veterans have []e a raid upon the office of the Clerk and []their papers preparatory to reaping []reward of their early labors in behalf of []country. Their names and ages are:
>
> | | | | |
> |---|---|---|---|
> | []ler Harris, | 79 | David Case, | 77 |

> | Christopher Haun, | 75 | | |
> []The Clerk, being statistically inclin[] polled the veterans and reports 9 Dem[]ats and 6 Republicans, clear evidence of []t was "the faith of the fathers."

Issues in this month's paper carry a notice:

> Soldiers of 1812, who served sixty days, are entitled to pension, and should apply immediately to John N. Gott, Bounty and Pension Agent, Ann Arbor, Mich.

An article in the March 17, 1871 issue further explains:

Pensions for Soldiers of 1812

> A bill recently passed Congress granting a pension to the surviving veterans of 1812, and their widows.
> It provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall place on the pension roll the names of the surviving officers, enlisted and drafted men, including military and naval service, who served sixty days in the war of 1812, and were honorably discharged, and the names of such other officers and soldiers as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress for any specific service of said war; also the names of the surviving widows of such officers, enlisted and drafted men, provided that such widows shall have been married prior to the treaty of peace which terminated the war and shall not have re-married.

The pension is in all cases to be at the rate of eight dollars a month, and not to apply to any person now receiving that sum, nor to persons now receiving less than that sum, except for the difference between the sum received and eight dollars per month, pension to commence from the passage of this law.

Where the discharge has been lost, other proof of service may be substituted.

Finally the Michigan Argus of March 31, 1871 carries this report:

Since our last report the following "veterans of 1812" have entered their appearance at the office of the County Clerk, and made the necessary proofs preliminary to drawing their pensions:

[Ed note: James Sober may be the veteran named James Lober above. Chapman, History of Washtenw County, 1881, p 603: "James Sober, now 88 years of age, was the first veteran of the war of 1812 who ever settled in Salem. He was followed soon after by Edward Dake, who has since passed away."]
